WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.-Improvment in the strike situation on the Pa dific coast was reported today to the railroad administration. Trains have begun moving out of Oakland, but so far traffic at Los Angeles still is tied

It is understood that the four brotherhood chiefs have set a time limit for the return of the strikers to work and the railroad administration is waiting on the unions before taking steps to operate the lines.

Officials declined to state specifically what plans should be made to run trains in the event the strikers remained out.
